

Information Disclosure

Effective date of posting: 10/04/04

Part 358.5(b)(3) of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's regulations requires that if an employee of a Transmission Provider (Company) discloses information in a manner contrary to the requirements of Part 358.5(b)(1) and (2), the Transmission Provider (Company) must immediately post such information on the Internet web site

Company is not aware of any instance whereby a posting would be required under Part 358.5(b)(3) of the Commission's regulations.